

Top Summer Shows to Travel For in Ibiza, Hydra, Monaco and More

From Athens to Monaco to Ibiza, Whitewaller has a plethora of favorite summer shows worth taking the trip.

HARRIET ENGELKE

JULY 26, 2024

Searching for a European art tour this summer? Here are some of our top picks, including exhibitions at La Nave, Thaddaeus Ropac, Hauser & Wirth, Château la Coste, Gagosian, and DESTE.

Mai Blanco

Fundación La Nave Salinas

Mai Blanco, "El Cerezo," Oil On Linen, 160 X 200 Cm, Courtesy Fundación La Nave Salinas.

June 28–October 31, 2024

Carrer la Canal-2, 07818 Eivissa, Illes Balears, Spain

For its latest exhibition, Ibiza's Fundación La Nave Salinas presents Mai Blanco's mesmerizing "Jardín Adentro." The show is a collection of 19 works by the Spanish artist, with canvases that glow while encompassed by darkness. The paintings take center stage as Blanco's pieces explore the sensuality and fortitude of Amazonas female warriors in the form of self-portraiture.

With each canvas, Blanco draws the viewer in with vibrant color palettes, large figures, and transcendent brushstrokes. The artist regularly depicts nude subjects in nature, exploring the root of humanity in its most unadulterated state. Blanco's La Nave exhibition celebrates the beauties of life and nature as a vision of contemporary talent.

What we love: This La Nave show marks Blanco's largest body of work to date. With its exhibition space of over 7,500 feet, the foundation is a prime location to showcase the artist's moving pieces.